INSTRUCTIONS TO SETTLEMENT DESK

Use the file reference on correspondence and preserve the date of each revised instruction. An unsigned email requesting a different payee, beneficiary, or mailing address must be verified under the established call-back procedure before the affected entry is changed. The preparer shall distinguish estimated figures from received funds and distinguish a payoff request from an accepted payoff demand. A preliminary ledger entry is not proof of a bank credit. The escrow officer shall obtain written clarification when instructions from the parties and the lender are inconsistent; no party's silence is to be entered as agreement to a changed amount.

ADJUSTMENTS AND EXPLANATORY ENTRIES

The $9,665.00 cost allowance consists of $1,250 origination, $650 appraisal, $85 credit report, $2,350 title/settlement, $250 recording, $1,680 hazard premium, $1,000 prepaid-interest allowance, and $2,400 initial reserves. A charge paid separately before closing must be credited once in the final remaining-cash calculation. Deposit credit is projected and must be matched to the receipt status; a delivery reference alone is not a bank receipt. No association transfer fee or seller repair allowance is entered.

RECONCILIATION AND RETAINED COPIES

Compare the legal description furnished for deed preparation with the title file rather than relying solely on a street address. A corrected spelling or middle initial shall be traced to the person's identification and the vesting instruction. Taxes and prepaid charges may be prorated using different periods; the period and method should accompany the line rather than appear as an unexplained adjustment. Preserve the prior estimate when a charge is updated so that a duplicate debit or credit can be detected. Copies marked 'received' show custody of a document; only the issuing professional can confirm the approval or release that the document purports to record.

EXCEPTIONS AND DELIVERY

Instructions requiring a release, certificate, or third-party consent remain distinct from the actual evidence supplied in response. An exception may be resolved by written commitment from the appropriate party only where acceptable to the title and settlement professionals. Mailing a signed document does not establish recording; preserve the recorder's confirmation separately. Deliver final copies to the named recipients after completion of the applicable step. No account routing number appears in this counterpart. Requests for payment instructions shall be answered through the verified escrow channel rather than by forwarding a previous message containing banking information.
