

INSPECTION CONTINGENCY REMOVAL

Transaction 48291 · v1 · Page 1 of 2

ELECTION ADDRESSED TO SELLER

Buyer Taylor Morgan, property 123 Main Street, Harborfield, agreement dated August 18, 2026. The inspection contingency only is removed by this signed notice delivered August 28, 2026 at 15:20. The recorded inspection deadline is August 29, 2026. Buyer inspection contingency removal is signed before the recorded deadline. No other box or election is incorporated by reference merely because the word 'contingency' appears in another record.

ITEMS NOT REMOVED BY THIS NOTICE

Financing, appraisal, title, and disclosure review are not removed by this inspection-only election. No release of a title exception, acknowledgment of lender funding, or acceptance of a changed purchase price is made. Buyer considered the delivered inspection observations and has not conditioned this notice on an unaccepted repair request. A later agreement concerning a repair must identify its own obligations and consideration.

NOTICES AND DELIVERY

Notices shall be delivered to the receiving party through the representative designated in the agency record, with a copy to the escrow officer when money, dates, title instructions, or possession are affected. A courtesy telephone call does not replace a written notice. Electronic delivery shall include the entire attachment and all referenced continuations; an acknowledgment of receipt does not signify agreement to a proposed change. The sending representative shall retain the transmission time and the receiving address in the correspondence log. A corrected attachment shall identify the earlier attachment it replaces. Statements made during a showing are not incorporated unless reduced to writing and accepted by the parties.

DELIVERY RECEIPT

Avery Chen transmitted the notice to Rowan Price and copied escrow file HF-2026-48291. The recipient's receipt is an administrative acknowledgment, not a seller amendment. Retain the whole notice with the inspection correspondence; a copied signature detached from the limitation above is not an equivalent instrument. Seller's signature is not required for this buyer election and no blank seller execution line is supplied.

INCLUDED PROPERTY AND CONDITION

Existing attached lighting, curtain rods, built-in cooking appliances, garage-door opener and two remotes, fixed bathroom mirrors, planted landscaping, and installed irrigation controls are included without separate allocation of price. Seller's freestanding office shelving and movable patio furniture are excluded. Seller shall not substitute an appliance of lesser capacity between inspection and delivery of possession. Manuals and transferable service records in Seller's possession shall be left in the kitchen drawer. No representation is made that a manufacturer's warranty is transferable. Ordinary wear occurring during reasonable residential occupancy is distinguished from a new casualty or the removal of an included fixture.

INVESTIGATION AND CHANGES

Buyer may arrange non-destructive investigations through insured providers with reasonable advance notice. Utilities shall remain available for scheduled inspections, except during an emergency or an interruption outside Seller's control. Intrusive testing, opening walls, and removal of finishes require separate written permission. A request for repairs is a proposal and does not itself amend the price or extend a deadline. Any accepted credit shall identify the amount, purpose, and affected settlement entry. Except for the particular term expressly changed by a signed amendment, provisions of the underlying instrument remain as written. Conflicting instructions shall be referred to the parties before the affected act is performed.

PERFORMANCE AND SETTLEMENT

Delivery of keys shall follow the possession provision, not merely the signing appointment. Escrow shall obtain lender and title instructions applicable to its own work before disbursement. Prorations shown before close are estimates subject to the final settlement calculation; a later corrected tax bill shall be handled as the parties' written instructions provide. A returned document with an omitted initial, incomplete attachment, or unaccepted alteration shall be returned for correction without treating the incomplete entry as consent. Each signatory shall receive a complete counterpart, including incorporated schedules. No representative is authorized by this instrument alone to sign another person's name or change a financing condition.
